Kithsiri Bandara Ekanayake

I am Kithsiri Bandara Ekanayake living at Pilimathalawa. I am a Retired Engineer of Sri Lanka broadcasting Corporation after serving 34 years.

During my carrier at SLBC from 1975 to 2009 I have served in the capacity of Technical Assistant, OIC and Engineer in Charge at Colombo Head Office, Senkadagla, Karaghatenna and Hunnasgiriya Transmitting stations respectively.

I worked at Hunnasgiriya TX station since it's inception as the Engineer in charge where I served 12 years until my retirement from the service.

My commitment to setup Hunnasgiriya Station was commended by the Management and then DDG-E Mr. Lionel Pinto.

I have undergone 03 months PDM Transmitter training at Deutche Welle in Germany in 1987.

My wife Shiranthi is a School teacher and we are blessed with one Daughter and a Son Who are currently engaged in higher studies in Canada and Australia.
